- 2.2 The Compliance officer shall assist all employees in addressing any clarifications regarding the Securities & Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulation, 2015 and the Company’s code of conduct.

3. Preservation of “Price Sensitive Information”

- 3.1 All information shall be handled within the company on a need-to-know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be procured or communicated to any person except in furtherance of the insider’s legitimate purpose, performance of duties or discharge of his legal obligations.
- 3.2 The board of directors of a listed company shall make a policy for determination of ‘legitimate purpose’ as a part of “Codes of Fair Disclosure and Conduct” formulation under regulation 8.
- “Explanation- for the purpose of illustration, the term ‘legitimate purpose’ shall include sharing of unpublished price sensitive information in the ordinary course of business by an insider with partners, collaborators, lenders, customers, suppliers, merchant bankers, legal advisors, insolvency professionals or other advisors or consultants, provided that such sharing has not been carried out to evade or circumvent the prohibitions of these regulations”
- 3.3 Any person in receipt of unpublished price sensitive information pursuant to a ‘legitimate purpose’ shall be considered an ‘insider’ for the purpose of these code and due notice shall be given to such persons to maintain confidentiality of such unpublished price sensitive information in compliance with these regulations.
- 3.4 Unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction which would:

- Entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the listed company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interest of the Company: or
- Not attracting the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interest of the listed company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the sharing of such information being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.

However, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

3.5 The Board of directors shall ensure that a structured digital database is maintained containing the names of such persons or entities as the case may be with whom information is shared under this cede along with the permanent Account Number (PAN) or any other identifier authorized by law where PAN is not available. Such database shall be maintained with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tempering of the database.

3.6 Need to know:

- (i) "Need to know" basis means that Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of the information.

Crossing of Chinese wall:

All price sensitive information shall be handled within the organization on a need to need basis with utmost care and shall not be communicated to any person and can not be crossed the Chinese walls except the following circumstances:

- furtherance of legitimate purpose
- performance of duties; and
- discharge of his legal obligations.

- (ii) All non-public information directly received by any employee should immediately be reported to the head of department.

3.7 Limited access to confidential information

Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password, etc.

4 Trading when possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information

No insider shall trade in securities that are listed or proposed to be listed on a stock exchange when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information:

Explanation: when a person who has traded in securities has been in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, his trades would be presumed to have been motivated by the knowledge and awareness of such information in his possession.

Provided that the insider may prove his innocence by demonstrating the circumstances including the following : –

- (i) the transaction is an off - market inter - se transfer between insiders who were in possession of the same unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of regulation 3 and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision;

Provided that such unpublished price sensitive information was not obtained under sub-code 3.4 of this code.

Provided further that such off-market trades shall be reported by the insiders to the company within two working days. Every company shall notify the particulars of such trades to the stock exchange on which the securities are listed within two working days from receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.

- (ii) the transaction was carried out through the block deal window mechanism between persons who were in possession of the unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of code 3 and both parties had a conscious and informed trade decision:

Provided that such unpublished price sensitive information was not obtained by either person under code 3.4 of this code.

- (iii) the transaction in question was carried out pursuant to a statutory or regulatory obligation to carry out a bona fide transition.

- (iv) the transaction in question was undertaken pursuant to the exercise of stock options in respect of which the exercise price was pre-determined in compliance with applicable regulations.

- (v) in the case of non-individual insiders: –

- (a) the individuals who were in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information were different from the individuals taking trading decisions and such Decision-making individuals were not in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information when they took the decision to trade; and
(b) appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place to ensure that these regulations are not violated and no unpublished price sensitive information was communicated by the individuals possessing the information to the individuals taking trading decisions and there is no evidence of such arrangements having been breached;

- (vi) the trades were pursuant to a trading plan set up in accordance with regulation 5.

5 Prevention of misuse of “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information”

Employeea and connected persons designated on the basis of their functional role (“designated persons”) in the company shall be governed by an internal code of conduct governing dealing in securities.

5.1 Trading plan

An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan for dealing in securities of the Company and present it to the compliance officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

5.2 Trading Plan shall:

- (i) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
- (ii) not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
- (iii) entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
- (iv) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- (v) set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
- (vi) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

5.3 The compliance officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of these regulations and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan.

Provided that pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan

Provided further that trading window norms and restrictions on contra trade shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.

5.4 The trading plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

However, implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the insider is in possession any unpublished price sensitive information and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. The commencement of the plan shall be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available. Further, the insider shall also not be allowed to deal in securities of the Company, if the date of trading in securities of the Company, as per the approved Trading Plan, coincides with the date of closure of Trading Window announced by the Compliance Officer.

5.5 Upon approval of the trading plan, the compliance officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

6 Trading Window and window closure

- 6.1 (i) The trading period, i.e. the trading period of the stock exchanges, called “trading window” is available for trading in Company’s securities.
- (ii) The trading window shall be, inter alia, closed 7 days prior to and during the time the unpublished price sensitive information is published.
- (iii) When the trading window is closed, the designated persons and their immediate relatives shall not trade in the Company’s securities in such period.

Trading restriction period can be made applicable from the end of every quarter till 48 hours after the declaration of financial results.

The gap between clearance of accounts by audit committee and board meeting should be as narrow as possible and preferably on the same day to avoid leakage of material information.

- (iv) All specified persons shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only in a valid trading window and shall not deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the Company’s securities during the periods when the trading window is closed, as referred to in point No (ii) above or during any other period as may be specified by the company from time to time.
- (v) In case of ESOPs, exercise of option may be allowed in the period when the trading window is closed. However, sale of shares allotted on exercise of ESOPs shall not be allowed when trading is closed.

6.2 The compliance officer shall intimate the closure of trading window to all the designated employees of the Company when he determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have in the possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates.

6.3 The compliance officer after taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, shall decide the timing for re-opening of the trading window, however in any event it shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after information becomes generally available.

7 Pre-clearance of trades

All specified persons, who intend to deal in the securities of the Company when the trading window is open and if the value of proposed trades is above 100000 shares or up to Rs. 10 lakhs (market value) or 1% of total shareholding, whichever is less, should pre-clear the transaction. The pre-dealing procedure shall be hereunder:

- (i) An application may be made in the prescribed Form (Annexure 1) to the Compliance officer indicating the estimated number of securities that the specified employee intends to deal in, the details as to the depository with which he has a security account, the details as to the securities in such depository mode and such other details as may be required by any rule, made by the company in this behalf. The Compliance Officer shall, if satisfied, give approval in prescribed form (Annexure – 3)
- (ii) An undertaking (Annexure 2) shall be executed in favour of the Company by such specified employee incorporating, inter alia, the following clauses, as may be applicable:
 - (a) That the employee/director/officer does not have any access or has not received “Price sensitive information” up to the time of signing the undertaking.
 - (b) That in case the specified employee has access to or receives “Price sensitive information” after the signing the undertaking but before the execution of transaction he/she shall inform the compliance officer of the changes in his position and that he/she would completely refrain from dealing in the securities of the Company till the time such information becomes public.
 - (c) That he/she has not contravened the code of conduct for prevention of insider trading as notified by the Company from time to time.
 - (d) That he/she has made a full and true disclosure in the matter.
- (iii) All specified persons shall execute their order in respect of securities of the Company within one week after the approval of pre-clearance is given. The specified person shall file within 2 (Two) days of the execution of the deal, the details of such deal with the Compliance officer in the prescribed form. In case the transaction is not undertaken, a report to that effect shall be filed. (Annexure 4)
- (iv) If the order is not executed within seven days after the approval is given, the employee/director must pre-clear the transaction again.

- (v) All specified persons who buy or sale any number of shares of the Company shall not enter into an opposite transaction i.e. sell or buy any number of shares during the next six months following the prior transaction. All specified Persons shall also not take positions in derivative transaction in the shares of the Company at any time. In case of any contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) for credit to the Investor Education and Protection Fund administered by SEBI under the Act. The Compliance officer is empowered to grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reason to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate these regulations.

Provided that this shall not be applicable for trades pursuant to exercise of stock options.

- (vi) The compliance officer may waive off the holding period in case of sale of securities in personal emergency after recording reasons for the same. However, no such sale will be permitted when the trading window is closed.

8 Other Obligations / Restrictions

- 8.1 The disclosures to be made by any person under this code shall include those relating to trading by such person's immediate relatives, and by any other person for whom such person takes trading decisions.
- 8.2 The disclosures of trading in securities shall also include trading in derivatives of securities and the traded value of the derivatives shall be taken into account for purposes of this code.
- 8.3 The disclosures made under this code shall be maintained for a period of five years.
- 8.4 Designated persons shall be required to disclose names and Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law of the following persons to the company on an annual basis and as and when the information changes:
- (a) Immediate relatives
